

This is what I would like to call a "fair-ware" pattern. No nagging, no threats, no BS.
If you find it useful, and feel like donating to my yarn stash, you can paypal me at dragonessd@wildmail.com. Or if you just want to drop me a line and offer feedback, that's good, too.

Just let me know which pattern it's for, okay? Thanks!

Terms of Use (Don't worry, they're easy.)

1. Don't sell the pattern as your own, and
2. If, by some chance, you sell this, don't charge more than $10 US for it.
(Unless you're using some really spectacular yarn!)

(I'm not sure what the currency conversions are if you're not in the US, but you get the picture.)

Work from the bottom up

Pattern is shown from the right side

Reverse stitches when working on the wrong side (FPDC becomes BPDC and vice versa)

Make foundation chain of 46 stitches. Chain one to turn, then start with row 1.

Every row starts with CH 1 and ends with SC

Finish by folding wrong sides together (short ends matching)

SC up the side you just finished FPDC so the sides are caught together

Key:

0 = Chain

x = Single Crochet

F = Front Post Single Crochet

B = Back Post Single Crochet
